NEW BRUNCH SPOT JUST DROPPED

Bon Dia Brunch - Interview with the founder

KAPUCIJNENSTRAAT 2

Introducing the Cornershop of Daydreams: Where Imagination Takes Center Stage

Located at the junction of Budastraat and Kapucijnenstraat, this unassuming door opens up a world of whimsy and wonder. We see ourselves as a group of creative individuals, more like agency custodians rather than owners, offering our skills to the city and its diverse inhabitants.

Deeply influenced by the city's energy, we strive to make a positive impact. As shopkeepers, we embrace our role as observers, perched at the corner, where we witness the unfolding of daily life. We see tired souls carrying shopping bags, road workers diligently fixing markings, and forgotten items like a lonely washing machine awaiting rescue on the curb. The street's history echoes through the cold stone slabs beneath our feet, and the old butcher's shop, once bustling with customers and displaying aging carcasses, stands as a testament to the past.

Silence speaks volumes in haunted places, and we believe the street is our world. While the street itself may seem mundane and transient, our corner holds a special place. It guides our daily journeys, serves as a time-checking spot, or a friendly space to seek directions. Stepping inside the Cornershop, you'll find warmth, organization, and an intimate atmosphere that resonates with a sense of agency. Handwritten price stickers, dusty ledges, and heartfelt greetings create an ambiance where dreams come to life. Among the magazines and lighters on a corner shelf, you'll discover a willpower that until now, you've only known in daydreams.

MEET LISA

HIRE ME!

✉ lisa.lyre@gmail.com

Hey there! I'm Lisa, and I'm really interested in blend of photography and painting. 2 years ago, I dived headfirst into this creative adventure, merging these two art forms into something really cool. Whenever I pick up my brush or snap a photo, my goal is to go beyond reality and capture the true essence of my subjects. My art is like a window into my inner world, where imagination and inspiration collide, resulting in vibrant compositions that can make you feel stuff. By mixing colors, textures, and those perfectly timed shots, I want everyone to get lost in my artistic vision and take a wild journey with me. It's all about blurring the lines, pushing boundaries, and unleashing the endless possibilities that come with fusing different mediums.
